College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources New Online Course Offering Request

Please submit completed forms electronically by the following deadlines:

September 1 for spring semester courses and February 1 for summer and fall semester courses

COURSE INFORMATION

Course Prefix and Number:
Course Title:
Credit Hours:
Semester/Year to be offered:
Catalog Course Description:
Please attach syllabus to e-mail or copy and paste below. At minimum, please include the following in the course syllabus: learning objectives, course calendar, assessment guidelines.

COURSE FORMAT INFORMATION

Has this course been offered at OSU in the traditional face to face format? Yes or No s the nex	kt 2 questions.

1.	When was the course previously offered and in what format (face to face, short course, etc.).
2.	Explain how the online offering of the course will differ from the face to face offering of the course (include how face to face class time will be replaced in the online environment and how/if assignments will change)
If NO,	answer the following 2 questions.
1.	What teaching methods will be utilized in place of traditional lecture, discussions, and/or labs used in face to face classes? (Note: According to OSU policy 50 minutes of instruction and 100 minutes of student preparation should occur weekly over 16 weeks for each hour of credit.)

۷.	How have you determined the number of credit hours students will earn for this course? (Pleas reflect on your experiences teaching similar courses.)
Submi	tted by (instructor of course):
Depart	ment:
Contac	et Information:
	ave you prepared to teach in the online environment (i.e. participated in ITLE's Preparing Online tors course, met with a mentor experienced in teaching online, read books on online learning, etc.
Depart	ment Head Name: